Future Licence Holder Details

It is important that we have information about who the right of burial should move to, after the death of the Licence Holder. This person will have the sole right to make any decisions concerning the plot(s), including the decision whether to have a memorial and its wording. In the case of multiple plots, it would also include decisions about future interments for the plots.

Please complete the section on the following page and tick the box to indicate which option is applicable.

Option 1

In the event of my death, my wishes concerning the burial plots will be clearly expressed in my will.
